✦ PRIVATE TRAVEL ITINERARY ✦

Paris & Burgundy

Jimmy Cannon · May 23 – June 12, 2026 · 21 Days

OUTBOUND

DFW ↠ EWR ↠ ORY

May 23 | La Compagnie

RETURN

ORY ↠ EWR ↠ DFW

June 12 | ~3 pm EWR dep.

PARIS I — HOTEL LOCOMO

May 24 – 29

12th arr · Gare de Lyon

BURGUNDY

May 30 – June 2

With Lena & Cyril · Beaune area

PARIS II — BOOK NOW

June 3 – 12

Near Île Saint-Louis · 4th arr

Weather Overview

Paris in late May through mid-June is one of the most beautiful times of year — long golden evenings, manageable crowds, and warmth without summer heat. Pack a light jacket and a travel umbrella.

?

?

☀

Late May · Paris

May 24 – 29

66–72°F / 19–22°C

Lows: 50–56°F / 10–13°C
~4 rain days expected
Sunset: ~9:40 pm (16 hrs daylight)
Light rain showers, mostly morning
Wear: light layers, packable rain jacket

Burgundy

May 30 – June 2

64–70°F / 18–21°C

Lows: 48–54°F / 9–12°C
Cooler evenings in the vineyard country
Occasional afternoon storms
Very green, rolling countryside
Wear: layer up for vineyard walks

Early June · Paris

June 3 – 12

70–77°F / 21–25°C

Lows: 54–61°F / 12–16°C
Longer dry spells, occasional afternoon shower
Sunset: ~9:55 pm
Ideal outdoor café weather
Wear: light clothes + one layer for evenings

Flights

Book first class DFW → EWR directly on aa.com or united.com, filtering for departures that land by 4 pm. Typical first class fare on this route: $400–900.

LEG 1

DFW ↠ EWR

May 23 · Depart by 12:30 pm CT · First Class · American or United nonstop (~3h 30m)

Arrive by 4:00 pm

LEG 2

EWR ↠ ORY

May 23 (evening) · La Compagnie · All-Business Class · Nonstop (~7h 30m) · Arrive Paris Orly, May 24 morning

Booked ✓ La Compagnie

RETURN

ORY ↠ EWR ↠ DFW

June 12 · Fly ORY → EWR (morning, ~8 hrs, land ~10 am ET) · Then EWR → DFW ~3 pm · First Class

> ⍰ Book DFW ↔ EWR now: Check Google Flights, KAYAK, or direct at aa.com / united.com. Filter by First class, May 23 outbound / June 12 return. Fare alert: set a Google Flights alert if you want to track price drops.

Friday, May 23 → Saturday, May 24

01 Travel Day — Dallas to Paris

✈ DFW → EWR → ORY

In the air

SCHEDULE

- Morning — fly DFW → EWR first class. Depart by 12:30 pm CT, land by 4 pm ET.
- Evening — La Compagnie departs EWR. Board relaxed — it's all-business, flat beds, real food.
- Overnight — sleep on the flight. You'll land Paris Orly around 8–10 am local time, May 24.

AIRPORT & ON-BOARD

EWR

Saison at Newark Terminal C

Solid pre-flight option at EWR — New American, farm-to-table, actual food before you board.

BOARD

La Compagnie In-Flight Dining

Business class dinner + champagne. Let them feed you — the service is genuinely good.

Saturday, May 24

02 Arrive Paris · Canal Saint-Martin

12TH ARR · HOTEL LOCOMO

68°F · Partly cloudy

DAY PLAN

- Land at Orly — take G7 taxi straight to Hotel Locomo (Gare de Lyon/12th arr, ~35 min, €35–45). Skip the train today, you're tired.
- Check in, drop bags, take a hot shower. Resist the urge to sleep — push through to evening and you'll beat jet lag.
- Slow afternoon walk around Canal Saint-Martin (10th arr, 20-min walk or quick metro). Iron bridges, green water, laid-back locals. This is the real Paris energy.
- Pick up provisions at any neighborhood market for tomorrow morning.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Du Pain et des Idées

34 rue Yves Toudic, 10th · Paris's most famous bakery. Get the escargot pastry and a tartine. Go early — it sells out. Closed Sunday.

DINNER

Virtus

29 rue de Cotte, 12th · Michelin-starred, right near your hotel. Contemporary French-Japanese, precision cooking. Book ahead.

ALT DINNER

Le Barav

6 rue Charles-François Dupuis, 3rd · Natural wine bar in the Marais. Small plates, great bottles, relaxed energy. Perfect for a tired first night.

Sunday, May 25

03 Hidden Museums · Marais & Montmartre

3RD ARR · MARAIS · 18TH ARR

67°F · Light clouds

DAY PLAN

- Musée de la Chasse et de la Nature (60 rue des Archives, 3rd) — a cabinet of curiosities centered on hunting. Bizarre taxidermy, Old Masters, surrealist installations. Zero tourists. One of Paris's weirdest, most wonderful rooms.
- Walk through the Marais — browse the galleries on rue Vieille du Temple, grab a coffee.
- Afternoon: Musée Gustave Moreau (14 rue de La Rochefoucauld, 9th) — symbolist painter's private studio, preserved exactly as he left it. Otherworldly paintings floor to ceiling. Almost always quiet.
- Evening aperitif in the neighborhood before dinner.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Chez Janou

2 rue Roger Verlomme, 3rd · Packed Provençal bistro in the Marais. 100+ pastis options, great ratatouille, very French atmosphere. Arrive at 12 or 12:15 or you'll wait.

DINNER

Septime

80 rue de Charonne, 11th · One of Paris's best — produce-driven bistronomie, inventive, soulful. Book 3–4 weeks ahead online. Worth it.

ALT DINNER

Le Barav

6 rue Charles-François Dupuis, 3rd · Great natural wine selection, snacky small plates. If Septime is booked, this is a perfect low-key night.

Monday, May 26

04 Promenade Plantée · Marché d'Aligre

12TH ARR · VIADUC DES ARTS

70°F · Mostly sunny

DAY PLAN

- Morning: Marché d'Aligre (place d'Aligre, 12th) — the best, most local market in Paris. Skip the tourist markets. Outdoor flea section + covered food hall + wine bar at the corner. Go before noon.
- Promenade Plantée — Paris's elevated park, built 1993, 4.5 km on a converted rail viaduct. Starts at Avenue Daumesnil, steps from your hotel. Walk east through the hanging gardens.
- Below the promenade: Viaduc des Arts — artisan workshops built into the brick arches. Furniture restorers, violin makers, jewelers. Worth ducking into a few.
- Late afternoon: rest at hotel or wander the quartier.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Le Baron Rouge

1 rue Théophile Roussel, 12th · Beloved wine bar right at Marché d'Aligre. Oysters on the sidewalk, cheap house wine, charcuterie. Iconic local spot. Cash only, standing room, perfect.

DINNER

Passerini

65 rue Traversière, 12th · Italian-French from Roman chef Giovanni Passerini. Beautiful pastas, great natural wine list. One of the best Italians in Paris, 5 minutes from Hotel Locomo.

ALT DINNER

À la Biche au Bois

45 avenue Ledru-Rollin, 12th · Old-school French bistro, game dishes, cassoulet, classic fixed-price menu. The kind of place Paris grandmothers have eaten at for 40 years.

Tuesday, May 27

05 Musée des Arts et Métiers · Butte-aux-Cailles

3RD ARR · 13TH ARR

66°F · Possible shower

DAY PLAN

- Musée des Arts et Métiers (60 rue Réaumur, 3rd) — proto-steampunk museum of science, industry and invention, built inside a 12th-century priory. Foucault's original pendulum hangs from the church ceiling. Mechanical automata, early flying machines, Lavoisier's lab. Most underrated museum in Paris.
- Walk through the République neighborhood, grab a coffee on one of the terraces.
- Afternoon: Butte-aux-Cailles (13th arr, 25-min metro) — a village-within-the-city. Cobblestones, street murals, intimate bars. Completely off the tourist radar. Walk every street — it takes 20 minutes to cover the whole neighborhood.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Le Hangar

12 impasse Berthaud, 3rd · Neighborhood bistro steps from Musée des Arts et Métiers. Unpretentious, good food, mostly locals. Steak frites, crème brûlée — the classics, done right.

DINNER

Le Temps des Cerises

18 rue de la Butte-aux-Cailles, 13th · A worker-owned cooperative bistro since 1976. Convivial, loud, honest food. Order the tarte tatin. Feels like eating in someone's home.

ALT DINNER

Chez Gladines

30 rue des Cinq Diamants, 13th · Basque bar and restaurant in Butte-aux-Cailles. Huge salads, duck confit, jambon Basque, great prices. Extremely popular — arrive early or wait.

Wednesday, May 28

06 Day Trip — Fontainebleau

FONTAINEBLEAU FOREST · 45 MIN BY TRAIN

71°F · Clear

DAY PLAN

- Train from Gare de Lyon → Fontainebleau-Avon (direct, ~40 min, Transilien Line R). Leave by 9:30 am.
- Château de Fontainebleau — grander than it looks in photos, UNESCO World Heritage. 1,500 rooms. Napoleon's apartments are extraordinary. Almost no crowds compared to Versailles. 3–4 hour visit.
- Walk the formal gardens and the canal. The forest surrounds everything — enormous, ancient oaks and sandstone boulders.
- Return train to Paris, back by 6–7 pm.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

La Table des Maréchaux

In Fontainebleau town · Classic French brasserie steps from the château. White tablecloths, set menus, solid cooking. Or grab a picnic from the market and eat in the gardens.

DINNER

Le Train Bleu

Gare de Lyon, Paris · Belle Époque masterpiece right in your train station. Gilded ceilings, murals, the full experience. Touristy but genuinely spectacular for a special occasion dinner.

ALT DINNER

Ground Control

81 rue du Charolais, 12th · Massive covered food hall in a former postal warehouse, 5 min from Hotel Locomo. Multiple kitchens, bars, live events. Great for a relaxed post-day-trip evening.

Thursday, May 29

07 Belleville · Pack for Burgundy

20TH ARR · BELLEVILLE

69°F · Variable

DAY PLAN

- Belleville (20th arr) — Paris's most genuinely multicultural neighborhood. Chinese community, Tunisian community, Jewish community, artists. Zero tourist infrastructure. Walk along rue de Belleville, explore the side streets.
- Street art all over the neighborhood — look for the painted staircases and murals off rue Denoyez.
- Afternoon: pack, rest. You're heading to Burgundy tomorrow morning — train from Gare de Lyon.
- Last dinner in Paris I — make it count.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Dong Huong

14 rue Louis Bonnet, 11th · Legendary Vietnamese in Belleville, open since 1980. The pho and bun bo hue are exceptional. Cheap, crowded, fantastic. Cash only.

DINNER

Saturne

17 rue Notre-Dame-des-Victoires, 2nd · Natural wine-forward restaurant with impeccable Nordic-French cooking. One of the best in Paris. Book weeks ahead. The tasting menu is worth every euro.

ALT DINNER

Frenchie

5 rue du Nil, 2nd · Gregory Marchand's flagship bistro. Market-driven menu, constantly changing, always brilliant. Small room, buzzy atmosphere. Book ahead.

Friday, May 30

08 Arrive Beaune · Hospices de Beaune

BEAUNE · WITH LENA & CYRIL

67°F · Clear

DAY PLAN

- Train: Gare de Lyon → Beaune (TGV, ~2 hrs). Depart 9 am, arrive ~11 am. Meet Lena and Cyril.
- Hospices de Beaune (Hôtel-Dieu) — the 15th-century charity hospital with the most extraordinary polychrome tile roof in France. Not to be missed. Roger van der Weyden's Last Judgment inside.
- Walk the old town — Beaune is fully walled and medieval. The ramparts, the wine merchant caves, the Saturday morning market (the best in Burgundy).
- Evening: aperitif with your hosts, then dinner out.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Ma Cuisine

Place Carnot, Beaune · The classic top-end Beaune bistro. Cash only. Extraordinary wine list at astonishing prices (direct from producers). Reservations essential. Closed weekend — call ahead.

DINNER

Loiseau des Vignes

31 rue Maufoux, Beaune · Bernard Loiseau's wine-country restaurant. Seven-course menu gourmand option. Cellar of extraordinary Burgundies. The coq au vin is definitive.

ALT DINNER

La Dilettante

Beaune · Small, inventive wine bar with Asian influences and natural wine producers. Refreshingly different from the classic Burgundian menus. Great for a low-key first night.

Saturday, May 31

09

Côte de Nuits Wine Route

GEVREY-CHAMBERTIN · CLOS DE VOUGEOT · NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES

68°F · Sunny

DAY PLAN

- Hire a local driver or rent a car — the wine route is best done with someone else driving. Lena and Cyril likely have contacts.
- Gevrey-Chambertin — walk the vineyard lanes. Domaine Rossignol-Trapet does tastings and is one of the better smaller houses. The Chambertin Grand Cru vineyard itself is just a field — but standing in it is something else.
- Clos de Vougeot — UNESCO-listed walled vineyard, 50 hectares of Grand Cru. Tour the interior of the château (the press room dates to the 12th century).
- Stop in Nuits-Saint-Georges for a café and a walk. Saturday market in the morning.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Café de la Paix — Nuits-Saint-Georges

Classic village brasserie in Nuits-Saint-Georges. Simple plat du jour, local wine, tables outside. Exactly what you want mid-vineyard-tour.

DINNER

Ma Cuisine — Beaune

If you couldn't get in Friday — try again Saturday. The wine list alone is worth the trip. Ask what the sommelier is drinking himself. Cash only, book ahead.

ALT DINNER

Caves Madeleine

8 rue du Faubourg Madeleine, Beaune · Wine bar and restaurant with rotating seasonal menu emphasizing natural wines. Intimate, excellent, more casual than Loiseau.

10

Sunday, June 1

Vézelay · Fontenay Abbey · Époisses

NORTHERN BURGUNDY · MORVAN HILLS

65°F · Mixed

DAY PLAN

- Drive north (~1.5 hrs from Beaune). Vézelay — a hilltop UNESCO pilgrimage village with a Romanesque basilica that will stop you cold. The light inside at noon is extraordinary. Walk every lane — the village is tiny and perfect.
- En route back: Fontenay Abbey (1118 AD) — one of the oldest, best-preserved Cistercian monasteries in Europe. Austere, enormous, completely humbling. Very few visitors.
- Stop at Époisses village — buy the famous washed-rind cheese directly from the fromagerie (Fromagerie Berthaut). Wrap it well. It's the best cheese in France and it smells like it.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Le Bougainville — Vézelay

Village restaurant at the top of Vézelay. Terrasse with views over the Morvan valley. Local Burgundian classics — jambon persillé, oeufs en meurette. Simple and excellent.

DINNER

Le Benaton

25 faubourg Bretonnière, Beaune · Michelin star since 2006. Contemporary Burgundian with bold, precise flavors. The tasting menu with wine pairings is the move. Book well in advance.

ALT DINNER

Loiseau des Vignes

31 rue Maufoux, Beaune · If Benaton is booked. The wine list here is one of the best in France. Seven courses, extraordinary Pinot Noirs, the full Burgundy experience.

Monday, June 2

11 Côte de Beaune · Return to Paris

MEURSAULT · PULIGNY-MONTRACHET → PARIS

68°F · Clearing

DAY PLAN

- Morning drive: the southern wine villages — Pommard, Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet. Puligny is quieter and the whites are extraordinary. Stop at a domaine for a morning tasting.
- Buxy cooperative cave (Caves des Vignerons de Buxy) — one of the best co-ops in Burgundy. Buy bottles direct. Great value on Montagny and Mercurey.
- Farewells to Lena and Cyril. Train back to Paris Gare de Lyon (~2 hrs). Check into your Île Saint-Louis hotel.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Caves Madeleine — Beaune

8 rue du Faubourg Madeleine · Last Burgundy meal. Wine bar format, fresh seasonal dishes, natural wines. A perfect send-off before the train back to Paris.

DINNER

Le Sergent Recruteur

41 rue Saint-Louis en l'Île, 4th · Michelin-starred restaurant right on your new island. Inventive contemporary French, excellent wine list. First dinner at your new base. Book ahead.

ALT DINNER

Sorza

51 rue Saint-Louis en l'Île, 4th · Italian-French fusion on the island. Elegant but relaxed. Good for a low-key first evening back in Paris if you're tired from travel.

EUX
RESTAURANT
JAPONAIS
Restaurant
Japonais

Tuesday, June 3

12 Île Saint-Louis · Latin Quarter · Cluny

4TH ARR · ÎLE SAINT-LOUIS

72°F · Beautiful

DAY PLAN

- Settle into your new hotel. Walk every street on the Île Saint-Louis — there are only a handful, and it takes 20 minutes. It's a village suspended in the Seine.
- Berthillon — the legendary ice cream shop on the island. 31 rue Saint-Louis en l'Île. Get two scoops, eat on the quai, watch the river.
- Afternoon: Musée de Cluny (5th arr, 5-min walk across Pont de la Tournelle) — medieval Paris, Roman baths underneath the building, and the Lady and the Unicorn tapestries — six panels, 15th century, absolutely devastating in their beauty.
- Evening: walk the Quai de Bourbon as the sun sets over Notre-Dame. With a bottle of something you brought from Époisses if you're feeling it.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Café Saint Régis

6 rue Jean du Bellay, 4th · The Île Saint-Louis café. Art Deco, great terrace, classic Paris energy. Croque monsieur, salads, kir. Settle in and watch the island go by.

DINNER

Le Sergent Recruteur

41 rue Saint-Louis en l'Île · Michelin star, tasting menu format. Contemporary, surprising. The best restaurant on the island. Book ahead.

ALT DINNER

Les Fous de l'Île

33 rue des Deux Ponts, 4th · Neighbourhood bistro on the island. Simple, good, very local. Great for a first night when you want something easy and close.

13

Wednesday, June 4

Château de Vincennes · Bois de Vincennes

12TH/VINCENNES · EAST PARIS

74°F · Clear & warm

DAY PLAN

- Château de Vincennes — a full medieval royal fortress east of Paris that 95% of tourists never visit. Perfectly preserved 14th-century dungeon keep, royal chapel, moat. Take metro Line 1 to Château de Vincennes.
- The Bois de Vincennes surrounds it — Paris's largest park, lake, rowing boats, cycling paths. Vastly less crowded than the Bois de Boulogne. Pack a picnic from the market on the island.
- Stop at the Parc Floral inside the Bois — free or cheap entry, a botanical garden with an outdoor concert stage (often jazz in June).

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Picnic in Bois de Vincennes

Grab charcuterie, cheese, bread, and wine from Marché d'Aligre (nearby) or a local shop on the island. Eat on the grass by the lake. Best lunch format possible on a warm day.

DINNER

Au Bougnat

26 rue Chanoinesse, 4th · Authentic old bistro steps from Notre-Dame. Rustic, traditional, great value. One of the few real neighborhood restaurants left this close to the cathedral.

ALT DINNER

Sorza

51 rue Saint-Louis en l'Île · Elegant Italian-French on the island. Good pastas, excellent wine list. Easy and close to home for a quiet Wednesday night.

Thursday, June 5

14

Les Puces de Saint-Ouen

SAINT-OUEN · WORLD'S LARGEST ANTIQUE MARKET

72°F · Partly cloudy

DAY PLAN

- Metro to Garibaldi or Porte de Clignancourt. Arrive before 11 am — dealers source here early, and the best stuff goes fast.
- Les Puces de Saint-Ouen — 2,500+ stalls across 15 named markets. Marché Biron for serious antiques and art. Marché Dauphine for vintage fashion, records, books. Marché Paul Bert for furniture and mid-century.
- Budget 3–4 hours minimum. Negotiate everything. Do not pay first ask. Bring cash.
- Afternoon return to Paris. Rest or explore the island.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Chez Louisette

Inside Marché Vernaison, Les Puces · Accordion, singing waiters, Edith Piaf songs, red-checked tablecloths. Deeply theatrical and completely wonderful. Get the pot-au-feu. A Paris experience you won't forget.

DINNER

Chez Janou

2 rue Roger Verlomme, 3rd · Provençal bistro in the Marais. If you haven't been yet — go. 100+ pastis varieties, great food, always packed, always fun.

ALT DINNER

Brasserie de l'Isle Saint-Louis

55 quai de Bourbon, 4th · Classic French brasserie right on the island's northern quai. Choucroute, steak frites, cold Alsatian beer. River views. Open late.

15

Friday, June 6

Jardins Albert Kahn · Piscine Molitor

BOULOGNE-BILLANCOURT · WEST PARIS

75°F · Warm & sunny

DAY PLAN

- Jardins Albert Kahn (Boulogne-Billancourt, 20-min metro) — one of Paris's most beautiful and least-known gardens. French orchards, English rose garden, Japanese forest garden, French village, all in one walled estate. Kahn was a banker who traveled the world and tried to recreate it.
- Afternoon: Piscine Molitor — the iconic 1929 Art Deco pool where the bikini was invented and debuted in 1946. Now a hotel and pool club. Buy a day pass for the outdoor pool. Gorgeous architecture, great bar.
- Evening back toward the island.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Piscine Molitor Pool Bar

2 avenue de la Porte Molitor, 16th · Lunch at the pool itself. Rosé, a good burger or salad, Art Deco tiles. The vibe is the point. Do it on a warm day — this is the day.

DINNER

Huîtrerie Régis

3 rue de Montfaucon, 6th · A tiny oyster bar in Saint-Germain, 12 seats, exceptional oysters from Marennes-Oléron. Champagne or Muscadet. One of Paris's most perfect small meals. Arrive early, no reservations.

ALT DINNER

Le Comptoir du Relais

9 carrefour de l'Odéon, 6th · Yves Camdeborde's beloved bistro. Dinner is prix-fixe, no reservations, line up. The food is extraordinary — proper bistronomie from the man who started the movement.

16

Saturday, June 7

Day Trip — Provins Medieval City

71°F · Comfortable

PROVINS · 1.5 HRS FROM PARIS EST

DAY PLAN

- Train from Gare de l'Est → Provins (~1 hr 25 min, Transilien). Leave by 9 am.
- Provins — a UNESCO-listed medieval fortified town most Americans have never heard of. The upper town is ringed by 12th-century ramparts. The Tour César is perfectly preserved. The rose gardens (Provins = the rose town) are in full bloom in early June.
- Explore the underground tunnels (chalk gallery network, guided tours available) and walk the full rampart circuit.
- Return train to Paris by 6 pm.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

La Croix Blanche — Provins

In the upper town of Provins. Traditional French cuisine in a medieval setting. Stone walls, beams, good fixed-price menu. The local specialty is rose-flavored everything — try the rose petal jam.

DINNER

Frenchie

5 rue du Nil, 2nd · If you haven't been yet — tonight's the night. Gregory Marchand's market-driven menu changes constantly. Reserve well ahead. One of the best restaurants in Paris.

ALT DINNER

Saturne

17 rue Notre-Dame-des-Victoires, 2nd · Natural wine + Nordic-French cooking. If you missed it in Week 1, this is your second chance. The wine list alone is worth the reservation.

Sunday, June 8

17 Montmartre — The Real Version

18TH ARR · MONTMARTRE

74°F · Sunny

DAY PLAN

- Go to Montmartre but avoid the tourist Montmartre. Walk up via rue Lepic — the village market street. Stop at the Café des Deux Moulins for breakfast (15 rue Lepic — yes, the Amélie café).
- Clos Montmartre — Paris's own vineyard, planted in 1933. Tiny, beautiful, between rue des Saules and rue Saint-Vincent. Almost always empty.
- Musée de Montmartre (12 rue Cortot) — Renoir painted Le Moulin de la Galette from this garden. Utrillo's and Valadon's studios. Very intimate.
- Evening: Jazz at Le Caveau de la Huchette (5 rue de la Huchette, 5th) — 8 pm doors, €15 entry. A 1940s jazz cave, Louis Armstrong played here. Walk there from the island in 10 minutes.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Café des Deux Moulins

15 rue Lepic, 18th · Yes, the Amélie café — but it's a real neighborhood café too. Croque madame, café crème, terrace on rue Lepic. Breakfast or late lunch before walking Montmartre.

DINNER

Le Caveau de la Huchette

5 rue de la Huchette, 5th · Dinner + jazz in the cave below. The food is not the point — the atmosphere is. A 1940s jazz club, under vaulted stone arches, 10 min walk from your hotel. Go for the night.

ALT DINNER

Brasserie de l'Isle Saint-Louis

55 quai de Bourbon · Walk home from Montmartre via the Marais and end at the island brasserie. River view, cold beer, steak frites. A perfect Sunday night.

Monday, June 9

18 La Recyclerie · Petite Ceinture

18TH ARR · ABANDONED RAILWAY

73°F · Partly sunny

DAY PLAN

- La Recyclerie (83 boulevard Ornano, 18th) — a café, urban farm, repair shop, and bar built inside the old Ornano train station on the Petite Ceinture. Chickens, a vegetable garden, beehives, a cocktail bar. Completely unique Paris space.
- Walk a section of the Petite Ceinture — Paris's abandoned circular railway, some sections open to the public. Overgrown, wild, beautiful. Access at boulevard Ornano or Parc de la Porte-Brancion.
- Afternoon: visit the nearby Marché aux Puces de la Porte de Vanves (Saturdays and Sundays — skip if Monday) or just explore the 14th arr neighborhood.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

La Recyclerie

83 bd Ornano, 18th · Lunch at the urban farm café itself. Farm-to-table, vegetables grown on-site, seasonal menu. The space is unlike anything else in Paris. Eat outside in the old station courtyard.

DINNER

Septime

80 rue de Charonne, 11th · If you weren't able to get in earlier in the trip, try for a cancellation. Worth every effort. One of the best restaurants in Europe right now.

ALT DINNER

Les Fous de l'Île

33 rue des Deux Ponts, 4th · Neighbourhood bistro on the island. Quiet Monday option, close to home, genuinely good cooking. The île flottante (floating island dessert) here is excellent.

Tuesday, June 10

19 Palais Royal · Covered Passages

1ST & 2ND ARR · RIGHT BANK

75°F · Beautiful

DAY PLAN

- Palais Royal gardens — the locals sit here. Arcaded colonnades, fountains, Daniel Buren's striped columns. Galleries beneath the arches — good antiquarian books, rare stamps, toy soldiers.
- Walk the covered passages — 19th-century glass-roofed shopping arcades, frozen in time. Start at Galerie Vivienne (most beautiful, mosaics and rotunda), then Passage Jouffroy (wax museum entrance, quirky shops), then Passage des Panoramas (Paris's oldest, 1799, now stamp dealers and vintage postcards).
- Stroll the rue du Nil food street (Frenchie zone — butcher, cheese shop, grocery, oyster bar all on one block).

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Le Grand Véfour

17 rue de Beaujolais · Inside the Palais Royal colonnade. One of the oldest restaurants in Paris (1784). Gorgeous Second Empire décor. Michelin-starred. A splurge lunch if you want one truly grand meal.

DINNER

Frenchie

5 rue du Nil, 2nd · If you haven't been — this is the night. Market menu, changes daily, brilliant. The bar à vins across the street (Frenchie Bar à Vins) is walk-in and excellent for a pre-dinner glass.

ALT DINNER

Café Ruc

159 rue Saint-Honoré, 1st · Smart brasserie near Palais Royal. Terrace in summer, classic French menu done very well. Good for a relaxed, beautiful last-full-week dinner.

Wednesday, June 11

20 Last Day · The Slow Morning

ÎLE SAINT-LOUIS · SEINE

76°F · Golden evening

DAY PLAN

- Slow morning. Coffee at your neighbourhood café on the island. No agenda, no museums.
- Walk the Quai de Bourbon and Quai d'Anjou — both quais on the island, facing north and south. Sit on the steps and watch the Seine.
- Pick up any final provisions, gifts, wine to bring home. The wine shops around Île Saint-Louis have good selections.
- Pack carefully — that Époisses is in there somewhere.
- Final dinner. Make it memorable.

RESTAURANTS

LUNCH

Brasserie de l'Isle Saint-Louis

55 quai de Bourbon · Last Paris lunch, on the island, on the river. Order the choucroute or the steak. Cold Alsatian bière. Watch the bateaux-mouches go by. Take your time.

DINNER

Le Sergent Recruteur

41 rue Saint-Louis en l'Île · Final dinner, Michelin star, right on the island. This is the one. Tasting menu, exceptional wine list, impeccable service. Book ahead and tell them it's your last night in Paris.

ALT DINNER

Sorza

51 rue Saint-Louis en l'Île · Elegant but not fussy. A beautiful last meal on the island — Italian-French, great wine, walking distance back to the hotel. End the trip exactly like this.

Thursday, June 12

21 Fly Home — Paris Orly to Dallas

✈ ORY → EWR → DFW

Homebound

SCHEDULE

- Morning — La Compagnie departs Paris Orly. Typical morning departure lands EWR ~9–11 am ET.
- Clear customs, collect bags. EWR is much easier than JFK for this.
- ~3 pm — First class DFW-bound departs EWR. Home by evening Dallas time.
- Orly to airport: allow 60–75 min from Île Saint-Louis by taxi or Uber. Leave the island by 6:30–7 am if your flight is 9–10 am.

EN ROUTE

AIRPORT

La Compagnie Business Class Service

Let them feed you one last time. You've earned it. Sleep the whole way home.

Essential Tips

Getting Around

Buy a Paris Visite card or use the Navigo Découverte weekly pass (€26, buy at any metro station with a photo). Covers all zones including RER to airports. Taxis/Uber for late nights and Orly.

Apps to Download

Bonjour RATP (metro maps + times), Google Maps offline (download Paris map), La Fourchette/TheFork (restaurant reservations), XE Currency, and Duolingo for a few French basics (locals genuinely appreciate the effort).

💶 Money

Most places accept Visa/Mastercard. Always carry €50–100 cash — several of the best restaurants (Ma Cuisine, Le Baron Rouge) are cash-only. Withdraw from ATMs inside bank branches, not standalone machines.

🍷 Wine Buying in Burgundy

You can bring 5 litres of wine back to the US duty-free as a returning resident. Pack bubble wrap and check a dedicated wine bag. The Époisses cheese: wrap in multiple layers, keep cool, declare it (soft ripened cheese is fine to bring home).

🏨 Hotel Booking — Urgent

Hôtel du Jeu de Paume is the top pick for June 3–12. Book direct at jeudepaumehotel.com — direct rates are typically better than OTAs. Also consider Hôtel L de Lutèce (paris-hotel-lutece.com) as backup. Both on Île Saint-Louis.

📅 Reservations to Make Now

Book Septime, Saturne, Frenchie, Le Sergent Recruteur, and Le Benaton (Beaune) immediately — all book weeks out. Le Baron Rouge, Chez Janou, and Brasserie de l'Isle Saint-Louis are walk-in.